

ChBE student clinches 13th position in World Othello Championship 2011

ChBE Year 4 student, Mr Koh Bo Chao Alex was placed 13th in the recently concluded World Othello Championship 2011, held on 2nd-5th November 2011 in New York, USA. Alex led Team Singapore to finish a joint 10th in the Team Championship chase. This year's tournament fielded a total of 54 world class Othello players from a total of 23 countries. Detailed results can be found at <http://www.woc2011.us>.

Alex is also the current President of the Othello Organisation (Singapore) www.othellosingapore.com which is a non-profit organisation registered in Singapore. He was the Othello captain of the NUS Intellectual Games Club (IGC) for the past 2 years, and has also led the NUS team to win 3 consecutive Singapore Schools Othello Championships from 2009 to 2011.

From right: Koh Bo Chao Alex (Singapore-13th overall), Nicky van den Biggelaar (Netherlands), table judge Martin Fransen.